

100 Ways

Ryan O'Shaughnessy

(Alright, alright with this
Alright, alright with this
Alright, alright with this)

Life ain't changin', rearrangin'
Same shit every day

Oh
Oh
Oh

Do we have to pick a side?
Tell our friends and family about it
It gets harder, 'cause I
I keep thinkin' 'bout your arms around me
And I know that in time we both let go
I guess we'll have to figure out
A hundred ways to live without it

Pick it up, you're a big boy
I'm not the only one at this party
Grab a drink, fill it right up
Now I don't need you to get one for me
Thought that I was the one for you
I thought of you
Guess we'll have to figure out
A hundred ways to live without you

(Alright, alright with this) oh
(Alright, alright with this) oh
(Alright, alright with this) oh

Life ain't changin', rearrangin'
Same shit every day

Oh
(We're alright, we're alright with this) oh
(We're alright, we're alright with this) yeah
(We're alright, we're alright with this) oh
(We're alright, we're alright with this)

Oh
Oh
