

Let Go!

Ryan O'Shaughnessy

I'm in love with you
And everything that you do
I can't take myself from you
I'm addicted to your every move

Even though you think it's over
Headed where you wanna go
Something in the water makes me wonder if you wanna know
How it feels to be your lover
How it feels to be controlled
How it feels to love yourself
How it feels to let go!

I'm amazed by you
There's nothing that I wouldn't do for you
It's like I'm stuck inside your room
You got me listening to the devils tune

Even though you think it's over
Headed where you wanna go
Something in the water makes me wonder if you wanna know
How it feels to be your lover
How it feels to be controlled
How it feels to love yourself
How it feels to let go!

I'm awake too soon
I've been dreaming over you
There's no escaping truth
Even the devil knows the rules

And now you're safe from home
You got away from the storm

Even though you think it's over
Headed where you wanna go
Something in the water makes me wonder if you wanna know
How it feels to be your lover
How it feels to be controlled
How it feels to love yourself
How it feels to let go!
