

Magic

Ryan O'Shaughnessy

Aha, don't wake up in a dream
With you
I don't wanna see your face on a screen
I wanna see you
Keep picking and choosing all your life
You'll never pick the one that's right
But who am I to pull the tide?
To steal your eyes

Magic moments resonate, made with raw adventure
Reaching deeper, too far away to kiss
Traveling through trying to find common ground, no tension
Reaching deeper, too far away to kiss

It's hard not to believe in love
It's in ever single one of us
If you truly wanna get to know yourself
A little back up, baby
Just listen to your heart
Follow your heart
Just tell me, have you...
Ever felt the touch of someone that you love? Mmh...

Magic moments resonate, made with raw adventure
Reaching deeper, too far away to kiss
Traveling through trying to find common ground, no tension
Reaching deeper, too far away to kiss

You'll never find out what life's really about, the secrets
Before you die searching, try living

Magic moments resonate, made with raw adventure
Reaching deeper, too far away to kiss
Traveling through trying to find common ground, no tension
Reaching deeper, too far away to kiss

Those magic moments resonate, made with raw adventure
Reaching deeper, too far away to kiss
Traveling through trying to find common ground, no tension
Reaching deeper, too far away amiss, amiss, amiss
