

Right Now

Ryan Star

I'm putting all my things in boxes,
I'm gonna throw it all away.
I think I've got a good idea but,
Who am I to say.

I'm burning all the things you gave me,
Erasing all my memories.
I thought you were the one to save me,
I was so naive.

I'm about to lose control
So, I'm gonna let it go

Yesterday is history,
Tomorrow may not come.
I'm gonna run to the horizon,
We are strong,
We are young.
I'm gonna lay on the ground,
Feel the rain that's coming down.
And there's nothing anyone,
could do or say to bring me down.

Right Now
Right Now

I think its time I started over.
I think I'll sail away from here.
I'm gonna make a great escape,
Now watch me disappear.

I'm about to lose control
Now I'm gonna let it go

Yesterday is history,
Tomorrow may not come.
I'm gonna run to the horizon,
We are strong,
We are young.
I'm gonna lay on the ground,
Feel the rain that's coming down.
And there's nothing anyone,
could do or say to bring me down.
Right Now
Right Now

All we ever have is Right Now,
And all we'll ever need is here, Right Now

Yesterday is history,
Tomorrow may not come.
I'm gonna run to the horizon,
We are strong,
We are young.
I'm gonna lay on the ground,
Feel the rain that's coming down.
And there's nothing anyone,

could do or say to bring me down.
