

ABLE

Ryan Stevenson

Our God is able
(Yes, He is able)
Our God is able
Yes He is, yes He is
He is able

You need a miracle, you need impossible
Something that you can't do
Your hope is running low, it's out of your control
You're praying help is coming soon

(When you're feeling low) He knows your sorrow
(Ain't nothing He don't know) holds you tomorrow
(Now there's nothing in my way) this is not the end

Our God is able (when you're weak He is)
Strong and faithful (keeps His promises)
Steady as the rising sun, what He said He'd do is done
Our God is able (so don't be afraid)
Never changes (every single day)
There's no wall He can't break through, no mountain He can't move
Our God is able

Thinking that all is lost, so full of heavy thoughts
His peace will calm those waves
Nothing that He won't do, to come to your rescue
So, cry out His name

Our God is able (when you're weak He is)
Strong and faithful (keeps His promises)
Steady as the rising sun, what He said He'd do is done
Our God is able (so don't be afraid)
Never changes (every single day)
There's no wall He can't break through, no mountain He can't move
Our God is able (our God is able)
(Yes, He is able)
Our God is able (our God is able)
(Yes, He is able)

He knows your sorrow
Holds your tomorrow
This is not the end

Our God is able (when you're weak He is)
Strong and faithful (keeps His promises)
Steady as the rising sun, what He said He'd do is done
Our God is able (so don't be afraid)
Never changes (every single day)
There's no wall He can't break through, no mountain He can't move
Our God is able

(Our God is able)
(Yes, He is able)
(Our God is able)
(Yes, He is able)
Our God is able
(Our God is able)

(Yes, He is able)
(Our God is able)
(Yes, He is able)
