

Mercy Changes Everything

Ryan Stevenson

How can I not get away?
The very grace You've given me
I gotta heart full of love and it's runnin' over
I'm so undone, losin' my composure
Don't let me forget the One who brought me here

Your love will break through anything
Your grace will stand and fight for me
Just when the story's done, and hope is gone
Mercy changes everything, yeah, yeah
Mercy changes everything, yeah, yeah

So how can I not choose to love?
And see the image of Your beauty inside of everyone
I gotta life full of proof that I'm accepted
Doesn't make sense, can't comprehend it
All that I can do is just thank You, thank You Jesus

Your love will break through anything
Your grace will stand and fight for me
Just when the story's done, and hope is gone
Mercy changes everything, yeah, yeah
Mercy changes everything, yeah, yeah

It's blowin' my mind
It's changin' my life
Everything I thought I ever knew
Is being redefined before my eyes

Your love will break through anything
Your grace will fight for me
When the story's done, and hope is gone

Your love will break through anything (Your love)
Your grace will stand and fight for me (fight for me)
Just when the story's done, and hope is gone
Mercy changes everything (it's Your mercy, mercy, God, yeah, ye ah)
Mercy changes everything (it's Your mercy, mercy, God, yeah, ye ah)
Mercy changes everything (it's Your mercy, mercy, God, yeah, ye ah)
Mercy changes everything (it's Your mercy, mercy, God, yeah, ye ah)
