Rich

Ryan Stevenson

Out above the golden state
Western skies and open range
Gospel roots, country raised on the Bible and John Wayne

Simple town, humble home
Chasing dreams down gravel roads Normal life was scraping by Living broke but we didn't mind

There's something 'bout the beauty of simplicity
It's hard to put a price tag on what gives you peace

The bottom line ain't always what it seems
And the treasures of your heart can change how you see everythi ng
The most special things in life, they don't come with a dollar sign
You don't have to have a fortune to your name
To be rich in different ways

Momma always spoke the truth
Be careful that you don't confuse
Happiness dressed up in success
An image that can quickly fade's a burden
When you try and chase approval
From the ghost inside your head

Oh, there's something 'bout the beauty of simplicity
And it's hard to put a price tag on what gives you peace

The bottom line ain't always what it seems
And the treasures of your heart can change how you see everythi
ng
The most special things in life, they don't come with a dollar
sign
You don't have to have a fortune to your name
To be rich in different ways

The bottom line ain't always what it seems
And the treasures of your heart can change how you see everythi
ng
The most special things in life, they don't come with a dollar
sign
You don't have to have a fortune to your name
To be rich in different ways

Sponzor: www.srovnavac.cz - vyberte si pojištění online!