

Welcome To Bonanza (Interlude)

Ryan Stevenson

Bonanza

Wel-wel-welcome to bonanza

At the end of the block
Where the pavement stopped
Was a little ten single-wide
We had a juniper tree in the driveway
And a church on the other side
Early in the morning
Summer sun rising
I remember waking up to the sound
Of that old yellow airplane
Dusting the crops
Shaking the windows in the house

Welcome to bonanza, bonanza
Wel-wel-welcome to bonanza
Wel-welcome to bonanza, bonanza
Welcome to bonanza
