

When We Finally Get There

Ryan Stevenson

If you can't carry the weight
Hard keeping the faith for so long
If you're caught up in a race
And you can't find a place to call home
Deep in the valley you might find pain
Lost and alone seeing no escape
So just hold on tight
The kingdom of heaven is near

When we finally get there
When we cross that Jordan shore
When we finally get there
When we all see Jesus
When death shall be no more
When we finally get there

If there's, someone you love
And they're on the other side
And your swept up in a flood
From all of the tears you've cried
Even the valley of suffering
Is a vapor in light of eternity
So don't you give up hope
The kingdom of heaven in near

When we finally get there
When we cross that Jordan shore
When we finally get there
When we all see Jesus
When death shall be no more
When we finally get there

We'll live forevermore
Death shall be no more
Glory to the Lord
We'll live forevermore
Death shall be no more
Glory to the Lord

When we all see Jesus
When death shall be no more
When we finally get there

When we finally get there
When we cross that Jordan shore
When we finally get there
When we all see Jesus
When death shall be no more
When we finally get there
