

All for you

Ryan Tedder

(All for you..) Everything, Anything I do...all for you

Everything, anything i do and you know that these words are true

I don't take my promises lightly, I try
Darlin, we know, right or left..which way i should go
Cause i can't get you out of my mind baby..i've tried
I've fall for you at least a thousand times before
Ever try to turn and walk away.. try to say good-bye with no one to say
You know I can't get you off my mind
And it shows I've dream about you all the time (baby, baby)

All for you...Everything, Anything, I do
It's all for you, baby
All for you, Everything, Anything, I do
It's all for you...there's nothing i wouldn't do
It's all for you

Do you know, from the dark, to the light by your side
Feels like there's nothing to hide baby
I could see the look of love reflecting in your eye
It's the only thing that i'll ever need
Just staring through the window looking right at me
She knows she's got me by the heart and soul
And it shows I'm trying not to lose control (baby, baby)

All for you..Everything, Anything, I do
It's all for you, baby
All for you..Everything, Anything, I do
It's all for you..
All for you..Everything, Anything, I do
It's all for you

There's nothing I wouldn't do, it's all for you
