

Yeah, here we go
Yeah
No disrespect look...

Look, here's a little something
For the women that be playing all my niggas like we crazy
All the ones that stay and take y'all bullshit on the daily
All the times you do some stupid shit but it don't phase me
Try to classify us all as dogs, well babe
That ain't me and that ain't him and that ain't him
But one bad experience can fuck you over
But God damn some of us just wanna lend a shoulder
I understand that some of us don't love you like we supposed to Y'all go from loving us to fuck us hold up
Like how it go from fuck you to I miss you
To you're fake, to let me kiss you
Then you cry about your problems when it is you
Try to throw me out when I'm your motherfucking tissue
I hope one day you get that
I'm the only one that gets you but it's cool
I'm saying all I ever wanna do is give you all my time
I just get confused because
You look so fine and you say you're mine
But your mind be somewhere else
And I just wanna tell you, I know I do anything you tell me to
But sometimes I just ask myself coz I don't know
Who the fuck you think you be talking to sometimes

You got me like don't keep crying to me if you don't keep trying
You ain't letting down nobody but you, ey
And I'm just being honest girl just being honest
You got me like don't keep crying to me if you don't keep trying
You ain't letting down nobody but you, ey
And I'm just being honest girl just being honest, yeah

Now tell me what you think about
Where you think I go each time I leave the house
Stop your tripping know the only shit I be about is Music and this money I just take the times your attitude get...

Ey ey ey ey ey ey
I know you on your little rant or whatever but, uh
Girls be tripping and all I get what your saying whatever but, uh
Your girl coming up the stairs and you know she
She got them hands man she ain't knocking my ass out
So you better get up outta here now
Don't forget your bag
Time to get the fuck up outta here
