

Night 4

Ryan Trey

Yeah

Gotta do this shit the right way, yeah
I can't do this all my life, aye aye
Do I do this out of spite way
Do I maybe I just need that
Maybe I just need one night just to get it right

Yeah

Spite this the seventh drink of the night
And don't even drink but tonight
Me and my kidney might fight like
Damn I know God's watching, yeah
Saw that bike and I copped it, yeah
Saw another chain and I bought it, uh
I don't really need no other options, ey
I just wanna do what I dreamed of, yeah
I just wanna do what I imagined
Money getting tall as a forward, uh
Still I seem to go backwards
I'm not done I need more
[?] still sharp as a sword fight
And I'll be back in a fortnight, I don't wanna die it's the fourth night

Gotta do this shit the right way
I can't do this all my life, aye aye
Do I do this out of spite way
Do I maybe I just need that
Maybe I just need one night just to get it right
