

Selfish

Ryan Trey

It's been misery in Missouri
I had to lose myself to find me
Along the way, I lost you
Chasin' the bag, left you behind me
I be in my feels sometimes, don't mind me
Rather have a wild time than idle time for Something to remind me
Of the one that I left behind me
And when I'm on them late night drives
I wanna slide to Michigan
Pull up to the hood you livin' in
Oh, just to relive again

Hurt me so much when we let it go
You loved me so much that you let me go
Love me enough that you let me go
'Cause you ain't wanna hold me back
In my mind, I knew that I was comin' back for you
I'm not home without my better half
I'm still holdin' onto what we had

I don't wanna see you with nobody, I'm selfish
I just wanna be the only one, I'm selfish
I don't want you to find somebody new
I'm only human, I can't help it

I don't wanna see you with nobody, I'm selfish
I just wanna be the only one, I'm selfish
I don't want you to find somebody else
I'm only human, I can't help it, oh
Yeah

Its been misery in Missouri
