Why is the world so large?
The more I see you, the more amazing it is Where did you come from?
All of these streets around the world feel so far
I can't fathom it, I can't believe it

We might've never known each other
But we crossed
Faraway paths and came together

The distance of stranger that's farther away than space
We crossed it, no, no and you came to me
We didn't know each other but from now on, one and only
We're closer, yeah yeah, than anyone else

The distance between us is lo, lo, lo, lo, love
The distance between us is lo, lo, lo, lo, love

I still get curious about you
What kind of fate is this?

To bring you out of all those people to me?
If you count how many strangers pass through your life
The probability of us is so amazing
It makes me never want to say goodbye, never want to let go

We might've never known each other
But we crossed this
Special path and came together

The distance of stranger that's farther away than space
We crossed it, no, no and you came to me
We didn't know each other but from now on, one and only
We're closer, yeah yeah, than anyone else

The distance between us is lo, lo, lo, lo, love
The distance between us is lo, lo, lo, lo, love
The distance between us is lo, lo, lo, lo, love
The distance between us is lo, lo, lo, lo, love

The distance of coincidence is farther than destiny
We crossed it, no, no, and you came to me
We're facing each other (one and only)
It's what I dreamed of, one and only
We're closer, yeah yeah, than anyone else

The distance between us is lo, lo, lo, lo, love
The distance between us is lo, lo, lo, lo, love
The distance between us is lo, lo, lo, lo, love
The distance between us is lo, lo, lo, lo, love
