

First there was me
Down and out, was bent 'til I was broken, giving up
On what I thought was love

All that I knew
Was holding on to hands that let me go, it's just my luck
Now how am I supposed to trust?

'Cause I got so tired of pouring my heart out
Couldn't pull myself off the ground
Swore that for the rest of my life I would never be found

And then there was you
You showed me how beautiful everything could be
You opened up my eyes
And now all that I can see is
You and I forever now
Chasing the darkness out
Who knew love could
Ever be so good?

Still there are times
I feel as though I don't deserve the life that we have made
From all my broken pieces

And here you are Making sure I'm safe and that I don't get hurt again
I almost can't believe it

'Cause I got so tired of pouring my heart out
Couldn't pull myself off the ground
Swore that for the rest of my life I would never be found, oh

But then there was you
You showed me how beautiful everything could be
You opened up my eyes
And now all that I can see is
You and I forever now
Chasing the darkness out
Who knew love could
Ever be so good?

You found me, you found me, you found me in ways that no one could
In all my wildest dreams I never thought that this would feel so good

But then there was you
You showed me how beautiful everything could be
You opened up my eyes
And now all that I can see is
You and I forever now
Chasing the darkness out
Who knew love could
Ever be so good?
