

Patience

Ryland James

I'm a victim of overthinking
Thoughts running wild out of key
Looking too far into the future
When present is all that I need

Trying to find myself
In this moment
Why am I feeling so helpless?

Maybe it's time to
Come to my senses
Cause I know that life doesn't wait

It's okay
They say patience's a virtue
So I'm gonna take my time

And today
I'm not where I want
But tomorrow's gonna be alright

Yeah I'm just gonna take my time
Tomorrow's gonna be alright

Life's been moving so fast lately
Trying to get out ahead
Between the lines it gets so hazy
It's hard to see through my regrets

It's okay
They say patience's a virtue
So I'm gonna take my time

And today
I'm not where I want
But tomorrow's gonna be alright

Yeah I'm just gonna take my time
Tomorrow's gonna be alright
