Ayy, ayy, ayy, ayy, ayy, that's probably Tago
Boy, this Tago

I know that you want me, you know that I need you
I pray I can see you when I'm gone
Just tell me when you're ready, I don't care 'bout your credit
If it's good, I still can't leave you alone
Where the hell you been, doc?
I had my patience on you
I went in every gym and I'm
I'm still waiting on you

You let me hit it listening to The Weeknd
I'd name them today if we ever had twins (Today)
Ride with two K's, and hit your house and back in Ignoring you while I'm playing the game, you get mad then
Don't want for me to seem ashamed, but I'm worried
Before I judge, I take off all my jewelry
You still was down before you knew I was a terrorist (Before I blow)
You worry too much, oh yeah, it's Aquarius
They watch me too much, now I had to hide my Rolex
All you wanted was some time from me
When I gave you all the finer things
I did it backwards just like Russian creme

I know that you want me, you know that I need you
I pray I can see you when I'm gone
Just tell me when you're ready, I don't care 'bout your credit
If it's good, I still can't leave you alone
Where the hell you been, doc?
I had my patience on you
I went in every gym I know
I'm still waiting on you

Baby out here fuckin' when I'm not in town
Who you let in your circle when I'm not around?
Can't live the way I'm living, they might lock me down
I hope you be the God, I'll gun you down
She know all I seen was death, she know how that sound
Am I your N-I-G-G-A or just a rebound?
Don't make me catch no charges
I'm dangerously in love with you, aw yeah
Now who been layin' on your couch in your 'partment?
Who drive your car while you at work lately?
You better not throw away my toothbrush, baby
I got my Xbox, I'm tired of playing mind games
You can have my PS4, but don't go playing mind games

I know that you want me, you know that I need you
I pray I can see you when I'm gone
Just tell me when you're ready, I don't care 'bout your credit
If it's good, I still can't leave you alone
Where the hell you been, dot?
I had my patience on you
I went in every gym I know
I'm still waiting on you
