

a poster child

Ryman Leon

When she told me we were special
I don't know if I believed her
She drove from Boston to Colorado for the season
So I don't know when I'll see her

But I didn't say goodbye
And I didn't say goodbye

And I lost my mind
I lost my head
I got too drunk down in New Orleans
I don't know if I'm a poster child for change
And I'm a long way out from coastal plains
In a town where no one knows my name
Unaccustomed to the silence of this place

But I didn't say goodbye
And I didn't say goodbye

And I know we had our reasons
But I miss New York in the summer time
You'd take the train to come and see me for the weekend
I was yours and you were mine

But I didn't say goodbye
And I didn't say goodbye

And I lost my mind
I lost my head
I got too drunk down in New Orleans
I don't know if I'm a poster child for change
And I'm a long way out from coastal plains
In a town where no one knows my name
Unaccustomed to the silence of this place

And I lost my mind
I lost my head
I got too drunk down in New Orleans
I don't know if I'm a poster child for change
And I'm a long way out from coastal plains
In a town where no one knows my name
Unaccustomed to the silence of this place

And I didn't say goodbye
And I didn't say goodbye
