

seven seas

Ryman Leon

I'd climb a mountain
I'd sail across the seven seas
Until I found you
And brought you right back home to me to Carolina
I wish you knew what we could be
I've got to find you
I've got to find you

I don't want to be the one to guide you
When it's always on the run
I don't wanna chase you down
To find out I'm the one you're running from
I hope your just patiently deciding Because I'm chasing down the sun
I'm trying to get back to where we started
But right now its far too gone

I don't know you anymore
Because I don't know what you're looking for

But I'd climb a mountain
I'd sail across the seven seas
Until I found you
And brought you right back home to me to Carolina
I wish you knew what we could be
I've got to find you
I've got to find you

Now I've been lost between desire
Because defeat is so unkind
And you know time can take its toll
I guess there's always more than meets the eye
And they say words are all we have
But I find peace in all the silence
Because this pain can take me back
When we resort to guns and violence

I don't know you anymore
Because I don't know what you're looking for

But I'd climb a mountain
I'd sail across the seven seas
Until I found you
And brought you right back home to me to Carolina
I wish you knew what we could be
I've got to find you
I've got to find you

I don't know you anymore
