Promises

Ryn Weaver

Never meant to break my own promises (2x)
Promises, promises (4x)

Again with excuses and generally wastin' my time
I'm findin' solutions, just seekin' my peace of mind
No hocus or pocus, my focus is drunk on the floor
And mumbling something about one more

I'm fallin' across the line
Keep punchin' pedals at the amber lights
And I cross my heart and hope to die
Unless I happen to lie

I never meant to break my own promises (2x)
Oh, one more night
I said it the last time
This is the last time, say it a million more
Never meant to my break my own promises
Break my own promises
Promises, promises (4x)

I said I was tryin', I really was drivin' the coast
The fighter, the flight, we lost sight with the lattermost
It almost is laughable, but when I chuckle I choke
Can't get the words out my throat, oh one more

Is that my lion's pride?
I meet my mountain then I run and hide
And I cross my heart and hope to die
Unless I happen to lie

I never meant to break my own promises (2x)
Oh, one more night
I said it the last time
This is the last time, say it a million more
Never meant to my break my own promises
Break my own promises
Promises, promises (4x)
