

Gekirin

RYUJIN

In to the fire wall, we're hiding
When you piss him off, disaster strikes

Run, he wakes up, damnation will come
Run, before sunrise, but it's too late...

In to the fire wall, we're hiding
When you piss him off, disaster strikes

Cuz you touched Gekirin!
He will show no mercy
Nobody couldn't alive when you touch it
People called it Gekirin, dragon's upside down scales

For the land, to the future and nature's divine
He will protect and keep on the land
He will fly to the sky and enter to the lake
He will protect and keep on the land

In to the fire wall, we're hiding
When you piss him off, disaster strikes

Cuz you touched Gekirin!
He will show no mercy
Nobody couldn't alive when you touch it
People called it Gekirin, dragon's upside down scales

For the land, to the future and nature's divine
He will protect and keep on the land
He will fly to the sky and enter to the lake
He will protect and keep on the land

For the land, to the future and nature's divine
He will protect and keep on the land
He will fly to the sky and enter to the lake
He will protect and keep on the land

Cuz you touched Gekirin!
He will show no mercy
Nobody couldn't alive when you touch it
People called it Gekirin, dragon's upside down scales

The low overcomes the high, it's called Gekokujo
