

Saigo No Hoshi (Single Edit)

RYUJIN

Even in the falling rain
I swear I see your face, it's looking back at me
Even in my deepest pain
I'd still go back just to be beside you
Even in the falling rain
It starts burning the skin right off of me
Even in my deepest pain
Saigo no hoshi ni

If I could wish upon a star just one more time
I'd like to leave this place I'm in right now
Until this battle of pain and sorrow is done for good
I'm forced to walk alone in the dark
Reaching for the light of life

Even in the falling rain
I swear I see your face, it's looking back at me
Even in my deepest pain
I'd still go back just to be beside you
Even in the falling rain
It starts burning the skin right off of me
Even in my deepest pain
Saigo no hoshi ni

Even in the passing seasons all dyed in sepia
I hate the passing of our time, it's just too quick
Struggling to find some justice in this different era of life
There is no skin to shed when your sword is stained with blood
If I could just be born again

Even in the falling rain
I swear I see your face, it's looking back at me
Even in my deepest pain
I'd still go back just to be beside you
Even in the falling rain
It starts burning the skin right off of me
Even in my deepest pain
Saigo no hoshi ni

Saigo no hoshi ni, saigo no hoshi ni
Saigo no hoshi ni, saigo no hoshi ni
Saigo no hoshi ni
Saigo no hoshi ni

Even in the falling rain
I swear I see your face, it's looking back at me
Even in my deepest pain
I'd still go back just to be beside you
Even in the falling rain
It starts burning the skin right off of me
Even in my deepest pain
Saigo no hoshi ni

Even in the falling rain
I swear I see your face, it's looking back at me
Even in my deepest pain
I'd still go back just to be beside you

Even in the falling rain
It starts burning the skin right off of me
Even in my deepest pain
Saigo no hoshi ni
