

She can see the clouds approach from miles
She can see the forest from new eyes
Perfect in her form, the two intertwine

Wouldn't you hide it in the fog
Wouldn't you hide it in the fog
Wouldn't you hide it in the fog

Brave new world, you're slipping on a slide
And we can check the fall from the other side
Perfect in her form, the two intertwine

Wouldn't you hide it in the fog
Wouldn't you hide it in the fog
Wouldn't you hide it in the fog

The rain came
Brought new life
We're shedding shells
And we blossom overnight

The rain came
Brought new life
We're shedding shells
And we blossom overnight

The rain came
Brought new life
We're shedding shells
And we blossom overnight

The rain came
Brought new life
We're shedding shells
And we blossom overnight

The rain came
Brought new life
We're shedding shells
And we blossom overnight
