

Ain't a Life

S-X

There's something in the air tonight, do you feel it?
You told me you don't care, it's alright 'cause you didn't mean
it

But do I do [?] right 'cause you've been feeling
Like moving on from me, I swear if you move on from me
I won't feel nothing again
'Cause there's ain't no one else who can make me feel the way you did

No, I ain't perfect and the mistakes that I've made are stupid
But I'm here now and I'm tryin' to make up for all that
For what it's worth, I need you on this earth

Sometimes I find my way, it's like another day
But my mind can run away, yeah

What am I really doing for you, yeah
Why do you keep my in your life (Keep my in your life)
You think I'd be better off lonely, yeah (Yeah)
But without you, that ain't a life (Without you, baby)
I know it might seem like I'm falling off (Yeah)
But I'm trying to be there for you (Be there for you)
What am I really doing for you, yeah
Why do you keep my in your life (Life)

If I ain't got nothing for you then why you wanna waste your time

I feel like you're just forcing me to make me fall in line
And you know it won't be true to me, I gotta do it in my time
Don't worry 'bout me, you shouldn't have to strain your mind
Your mind, tell me what did you find
I didn't see the signs when I was running wild, yeah
Still I came running back to you

I hope it ain't too late

Sometimes I find my way, it's like another day
But my mind can run away, yeah

What am I really doing for you, yeah
Why do you keep my in your life (Keep my in your life)
You think I'd be better off lonely, yeah (Yeah)
But without you, that ain't a life (Without you, baby)
I know it might seem like I'm falling off (Yeah)
But I'm trying to be there for you (Be there for you)
What am I really doing for you, yeah
Why do you keep my in your life (Life)
