Always Wrong

S-X

Mhmm
I'ma get it
Ayy

I'm never learning, I'm always wrong
The coupe is swervin', I'll take it slow
The man said he got a couple bad ones comin' through, yeah
And they know I'm about to blow (Ayy)
I'm never learning, I'm always wrong
Clock hands are turning, the time is gone (Time is gone)
He don't deserve you no, he know he don't
As long as the money comin' we gon' get along

And he won't do it like I do it though
You think you'd been through it all
Trust my intuition, listen I already know it so
Glisten glisten skin, poppin' you way too bad
I already knew I got you before I really had (Ayy)
Body positivity, no negativity
Yeah I love you just the way you are cause you'll do shit to me
Had you then I lost you, baby it's so crazy
Love you but I gotta say it
I don't know if this a mis-

I'm never learning, I'm always wrong (Ayy)
The coupe is swervin' (Skrr), I'll take it slow
The man said he got a couple bad ones comin' through, yeah
And you know what I'm 'bout to go, yeah
I'm never learning, I'm always wrong (Ayy)
Clock hands are turning, the time is gone
I don't deserve you no, I know I don't
As long as the money comin' we gon' get along

I am not in the mood, no I'm not in the mood (Ayy)
You was just something to do, oh just something to do, yeah
I hate that it had to be you, sorry it had to be you, yeah
It's all I say you can choose, it's all I say you can choose, yeah tryin'
And that's just the way that I felt, man I said should I go help
You're better off by yourself (Ayy), and we gon' find that is best
You put my soul to the test, I don't know if I saw failure
And you already know the rest

I'm never learning, I'm always wrong
The coupe is swervin', I'll take it slow
The man said he got a couple bad ones comin' through, yeah
And you know what I'm 'bout to go
I'm never learning, I'm always wrong
Clock hands are turning, the time is gone
I don't deserve you no, I know I don't
As long as the money comin' we gon' get along
I'm never learning, I'm always wrong (Never)
The coupe is swervin', I'll take it slow
The man said he got a couple bad ones comin' through, yeah
And you know what I'm 'bout to do
I'm never learning, I'm always wrong (Ayy)
Clock hands are turning, the time is gone (Ayy)
I don't deserve you no, I know I don't

As long as the money comin' we gon' get along
