I'm focused on what matters
I been through mad shit can't go back
I'm taking chances
I ain't got the time for you no more
You used it all as usual
Really I just see you as a distraction
And my mind dreams of things
Things you can't imagine
I know we're losing each other amidst the madness
Cause I've read this book before
