

Broken Place

S-X

Yeah
I'm in this broken place
I can't just walk away
I know there's other days, so I'ma just hope and pray
And I'm in this broken place
And you just walked away
I cannot fix today, wish it was history, yeah yeah yeah yeah
You better not do what I do (Yeah)
You are not me so good bye to ya
Don't let the fake [?] blind you (Yeah)
It's hard to sit here, I can't find you (Yeah)
That's what they do they befriend you (Yeah)
I got other things on my mental (Yeah)
I got other things I should tend to (Yeah)
Can't wait till I can forget you (Yeah)

Away from negative fuckery, yeah
Insensitive to the dummies, yeah
But so responsive to money and I know everything is temporary
Please get me out of this element
I know I'm alone in this room but there's someone else in here and it's not the elephant

I'm in this broken place
I can't just walk away
I know there's other days, so I'ma just hope and pray
And I'm in this broken place
And you just walked away
I cannot fix today, wish it was history, yeah yeah yeah yeah

I am so done with [?] twenty twos
For too long I've been [?]
Sugar coating all the bullshit too
So glad it's no longer me and you
Still by myself I'm so done with me

Remember the times you were losing me
I'm so glad it's no longer you and me

I know nothing lasts forever
I don't feel so high in this vetement
I know I'm alone in this room but there's someone else in here and it's not
the elephant
I remember, I remember oh
I remember

I'm in this broken place
I can't just walk away
I know there's other days, so I'ma just hope and pray
And I'm in this broken place
And you just walked away
I cannot fix today, wish it was history, yeah yeah
