

His Problem Now

S-X

I forced a fake smile
I couldn't sleep
For days in and out
I couldn't eat
You've taken over my mind
Hey
I used to be your remedy
I made you laugh now you're an enemy
The truth cuts like a knife

Look on the bright side
That's what you say
With the color in your eyes faded too red
You're moving on and I feel it

When I'm mad you had to go
Cause somehow we lost it all
And even though u matter to me you're his problem now
When u call a thousand times
And I'd run right to your side
You took the best part of me
But you're his prob now

We took the 8 AM
Out of town making the most of hearing now
For a little light on your face
Hey
Love in-between us ain't the same
The space between us will never change
It grows every day

Look on the bright side
That's what u say
But the color in your eyes are fading too red
You're moving on and I feel it

When I'm mad you had to go
Cause somehow we lost it all
And even though u matter to me you're his problem now
When u call a thousand times
And I'd run right to your side
You took the best part of me
But you're his problem now

Whoa, oh no, yeah yeah
You're his problem now
I tried and tried and tried
Oh the dosing, took your life
You're no longer here with me
You're his problem now
Up above the clouds with him
So until we meet again
Goodbye my lover, my friend
You're his problem now
