

I Don't Know Why You're Here

S-X

Ohhhhhh
You had it

Aye
Cause you're not over what your ex did to ya
I can see it, it's clear
I can't fix your emotions right now
I don't know why you're here
You should never have let me inside
I just won't dry your tears
I don't feel the same as I did, no
Now I know what it is
Cause you don't love yourself like I do
But trust me I know what's best
I can't fix what will always be broke
You know you should just leave
I should never have let you inside
I just won't dry your tears
I don't feel the same as I did before, na na na nah

I had to realize I'm not normal
You weren't ready for someone like me
I know you'd like to think you got me
But you never did honestly
You just take and take away from me my mind and energy
Its running low, we're not compatible
Though we thought we might be, aye

I feel you got my vibe
Always by my side yeah
Gonna let it go quick
And make you mine yeah
I cannot waste time
Too much on the line here
You ain't gonna be the reason I ain't flying out here
I ain't gonna be the hero
Just to feed your ego, hell no
And its all because of you

Aye
Cause you're not over what your ex did to ya
I can see it, it's clear
I can't fix your emotions right now
I don't know why you're here
You should never have let me inside
I just won't dry your tears
I don't feel the same as I did, no
Now I know what it is
Cause you don't love yourself like I do
But trust me I know what's best
I can't fix what will always be broke
You know you should just leave
I should never have let you inside
I just won't dry your tears
I don't feel the same as I did before, na na na nah
