

I Made You

S-X

Ooh, ooh ooh
No, no, yeah

It's funny since we ain't together
We been spending more time together
I know you ain't gonna let it
Get back into my head

I ain't really dead
I don't feel it yet
But I know what's real, yeah
Yeah, guess we're better on our own
Better versions of each other
No more need to hate each other
Waiting on this train forever
Guess [?] lock and chain
Right now you doin' my thing
I'm so selfish, not so helpful
I'm grateful, yeah
It's funny since we ain't together

I made you who you are
Yeah, I made you who you are
And you just went mad
'Cause I didn't get you far

'Cause I made you who you are
Yeah, I made you who you are
Yeah, I made you who you are
Yeah, I made you who you are, yeah

Losing interest in the things [?]
I know the struggle
'Cause I don't feel like I'm trained any more, no
Yeah

The efforts that you take don't create real feel
And you know better
It's funny since we ain't together
We spending more time together

I'm selfish but not for you
Only thing you don't wanna do
It won't work for you
But it works for me, yeah
