

It's Over Now

S-X

I don't need your love and I'm gone now
I don't think 'bout where you are now
You still think that you could be the one
But now baby, I don't
You can't blame me if I walk out
I didn't make you let your guard down
I won't take the blame, it's yours now

Although you gave me all the time I needed
I know you never thought that I'd be leavin'
And I already told you the reason
That I won't be there 'cause I don't really care

It's over now (Hey)
Yeah, it's over now (Yeah)
It's over now
And I won't be there 'cause I don't really care
It's over now

It's over now
And I won't be there 'cause I don't really care

Where do I go from here?
'Cause sometimes I want you near me
I got used to you bein' here
So what if this love kills me?
I don't wanna live this way, girl
Does it hurt when you say you love me?
I'm leavin' and I'm faded
(Stop cryin' for me)

'Cause I'm walkin' alone again
On a lonely road, oh (Lonely)
I didn't notice the love with it
All the memories with you mean nothing

'Cause I'm bleedin' out (Yeah)
I'm all done getting loud (Loud)
We've lost control somehow (Yeah)
I'm leavin' now (I'm leavin' now), yeah, I'm leavin' now

It's over now (It's over now, hey)
Yeah, it's over now (Yeah)
It's over now
And I won't be there 'cause I don't really care
It's over now

It's over now (It's over)
And I won't be there 'cause I don't really care
It's over now
