Girl why you want to leave me now
I told you I ain't easy now
Remember that [?]
You don't know where you're heading but you'd rather take the easy route
If it's me you can't be around then don't be around me, like

I'm sick of arguing with you
So much back and forth
Why you telling me again
You said this all before
You called me talking shit, while I'm just trying to record
You only ever do this when you're lonely and bored
No I ain't gonna beg you to stay with me
You can't change your mind when it's made up
Bet you remember to keep and save energy
When I blow and everything's changed up
My mental energy is low now, fucking with my creativity
I'm in this for life now, I believe in longevity

Girl why you wanna leave me now
I told you I ain't easy now
Remember you were leaving now
This time stay out if you leave me now
You don't know where you're heading but you'd rather take the easy route
If it's me you can't be around
Then don't be around me, like
I know somethings changed, time passing us by
I can't be the same, I'm just not that guy
I feel deranged, I don't know why
It can't always be the same, in just not that guy

And now she is calling and texting me
Like I didn't think this one through
I cannot give you any more empathy
I already gave it to you
I don't lie you know that it's true
You know that I'd give up my all if it meant I could spend some more moments with you
It's more than just something to do
But you don't believe what I say to you
Just cause you feel it, no that doesn't make it truth
I know you feeling like I am just playing you
You just do not like who I am changing into

Girl why you wanna leave me now
I told you I ain't easy now
Remember you were leaving now
This time stay out if you leave me now
You don't know where you're heading but you'd rather take the easy route
If it's me you can't be around
Then don't be around me, like
I know somethings changed, time passing us by
I can't be the same, I'm just not that guy
I feel deranged, I don't know why
It can't always be the same, in just not that guy
