

Neither Would I

S-X

I didn't appreciate
The time that I had when I left you
Now I'm just wanting it back
Contemplating whether I should tell you no no
Interrupting you like that Isn't something I'd do usually
But I know the world made you for me
And I'ma line it all up so that you trust me

'Cause you ain't gonna be the reason I ain't catchin' feelings
I need you to mean it, I got all the reasons
You ain't gonna be the reason I won't ever see it
'Cause I will always be there, life won't always be fair
You just gotta hold on to the times
When you would never need me and neither would I
You wouldn't believe me and end up in a lie
It shouldn't be easy, there's no wrong or right
And you're the one who started it, yeah yeah

Yeah, you thought you found love then you met me
I'm full of surprises, don't let me
Take your soul for granted, all the seeds that I planted
I can't let someone else just come and find you
Plus I can't let you live your life alone
When we finish I take the long way home
'Cause I need more time around you
I'm so glad that I found you

But you ain't gonna be the reason I ain't catchin' feelings
I need you to mean it, I got all the reasons
You ain't gonna be the reason I won't ever see it
'Cause I will always be there, life won't always be fair
You just gotta hold on to the times
When you would never need me and neither would I
You wouldn't believe me and end up in a lie
It shouldn't be easy, there's no wrong or right
And you're the one who started it, yeah yeah

I don't want nobody, I don't need nobody else
Only you have got me, I know there is nowhere else
That I would rather be, home is where you come to rest
And you're sleepin' on me, but they will never get it yeah
But I fight for what I love, nobody is one of us
I might have broken your trust, I'll rebuild it if I must
I took time away from you, almost fell astray, I knew
But I couldn't give it up

'Cause you ain't gonna be the reason I ain't catchin' feelings
I need you to mean it, I got all the reasons
You ain't gonna be the reason I won't ever see it
'Cause I will always be there, life won't always be fair
You just gotta hold on to the times
When you would never need me and neither would I
You wouldn't believe me and end up in a lie
It shouldn't be easy, there's no wrong or right
And you're the one who started it, yeah yeah
