I don't wanna be you, I don't wanna meet you
I just wanna feel you, but I don't wanna see you
I don't know how I'm feeling, been like this for no reason
You and I got no meaning, you and I got no- (Ok, I)
Packed up and she on me
Now I'm leaving, she want me
I'm already gone, I'm out that door
You can't stop me, ain't no stopping me
I know what I want (I know)
You're not in my, you're not in my, you're not in my plans

Don't step up to my friends
I don't care where I'm at
I just detox, then cleanse
I pull up in a beamer
I just wanna see ya'
What the fuck am I thinking
My eyes burn, now I'm blinking
No I'm not in a hurry, I'm not in a hurry
I think that she want me
Think about what she told me
She said she knows me
She knows what I say
She said I'm playing a nice game
I might leave, but I might stay

I don't wanna be you, I don't wanna meet you
I just wanna feel you, but I don't wanna see you
I don't know how I'm feeling, been like this for no reason
You and I got no meaning, you and I got no- (Ok, I)
Packed up and she on me
Now I'm leaving, she want me
I'm already gone, I'm out that door
You can't stop me, ain't no stopping me
I know what I want (I know)
You're not in my, you're not in my, you're not in my dreams

I think of you in the day
Don't believe what I say
I'll make it either way
I know what you need
And that ain't me
You need me in your life, I don't need you in mine
I know this ain't easy
Stop trying to please me
Cause women love backward
Hate the way that this happened
Don't tell me you love me
Cause I'm not in a hurry
Think about what you told me, think about what you

I don't wanna be you, I don't wanna meet you
I just wanna feel you, but I don't wanna see you
I don't know how I'm feeling, been like this for no reason
You and I got no meaning, you and I got no- (Ok, I)
Packed up and she on me
Now I'm leaving, she want me

I'm already gone, I'm out that door
You can't stop me, ain't no stopping me
I know what I want (I know)
You're not in my, you're not in my, you're not in my plans

I don't wanna be you, I don't wanna meet you
I just wanna feel you, but I don't wanna see you
I don't know how I'm feeling, been like this for no reason
You and I got no meaning, you and I got no- (Ok, I)
Packed up and she on me
Now I'm leaving, she want me
I'm already gone, I'm out that door
You can't stop me, ain't no stopping me
I know what I want (I know)
You're not in my, you're not in my, you're not in my plans
