

Same Old Story

S-X

You told me the same old story, yeah
I read your book many times
You don't have to say you're sorry no more
I've been told so many lies
You think that you're so special
But that's where you're going wrong
You've taken me for granted but
I won't be here too long for you

'Cause like you we're all the same, nothing changes
This is only going my way, I ain't waiting
I'm not done with all of my games, I ain't playing
Everybody thinks I'm okay, I didn't say shit
I won't really tell her how I feel, that's a rarity
And when we first started out, yeah, you took care of me
And this is me and sweetie, who I am and I ain't scared of it
You say you ain't ready for me now, that's why we ended it

You told me the same old story, yeah
I read your book many times
You don't have to say you're sorry no more
I've been told so many lies
You think that you're so special
But that's where you're going wrong
You've taken me for granted but
I won't be here too long for you
You told me the same old story, yeah
I read your book many times
You don't have to say you're sorry no more
I've been told so many lies
You think that you're so special
But that's where you're going wrong
You've taken me for granted but
I won't be here too long for you

Aye, I found you, I found you, yeah, yeah, oh, oh, oh

You told me the same old story, yeah
I read your book many times
You don't have to say you're sorry no more
I've been told so many lies
You think that you're so special
But that's where you're going wrong
You've taken me for granted but
I won't be here too long for you
You told me the same old story, yeah
I read your book many times
You don't have to say you're sorry no more
I've been told so many lies
You think that you're so special
