

Still I Get

S-X

Still I get my money, still I get my money
You still acting funny, you still acting dummy (It's you)
Remember she was on me, now she acting sorry
But still I get my money, still I get my money
Still I get my money, still I get my money
You still acting funny, you still acting dummy
Remember you was on me, now you acting sorry
But still I get my money, still I get my get my

I ain't airing you I'm always on time
You just hit me up at the wrong time
Been about my job for a long time
And I'm finally about to get what's mine
Did it all for me I'm staying selfish now
It started in the DM and we texting now
She said its all me she regretting how It's always been a long day and you forgetting how
We started
I'm so sorry that we parted
I just gotta my own thing so I can progress and move forward
I remember back when I was on you
And all I wanted was you
Then we realised our ways make us fight
So right now I don't want to, but

Still I get my money, still I get my money
You still acting funny, you still acting dummy (It's you)
Remember she was on me, now she acting sorry
But still I get my money, still I get my money
Still I get my money, still I get my money
You still acting funny, you still acting dummy
Remember you was on me, now you acting sorry
But still I get my money, still I get my get my

Your bitch was mad at me
But now she proud of me
And now I'm doing all the things I deserve to be
They can't look at me or even talk down to me
I'm writing this up on my mental balcony
That means I'm on the edge of my profanity
I know your baby mom cause she's a fan of me
Yeah we cool but please don't call me family
Cause not even my family is my family yeah

Still I get my money, still I get my money
You still acting funny, you still acting dummy (It's you)
Remember she was on me, now she acting sorry
But still I get my money, still I get my money
Still I get my money, still I get my money
You still acting funny, you still acting dummy
Remember you was on me, now you acting sorry
But still I get my money, still I get my get my

Still I get my money, still I get my money
You still acting funny, you still acting dummy (It's you)
Remember she was on me, now she acting sorry
But still I get my money, still I get my money

Still I get my money, still I get my money
You still acting funny, you still acting dummy
Remember you was on me, now you acting sorry
But still I get my money, still I get my get my
