

Worth It

S-X

Is nobody right then? (Yeah)
Is nobody right then?
Ha-ha
Yeah

I told you things, and I'm hoping that we could stay the same
No holding back
I did wrong and I don't think you deserve it, no no
I know you're changing
You couldn't shoot your shot, but you're still aiming
So who you blaming?
I might've make the same mistake with my [?]
It's not the same thing
But we know the main thing
I'm learning more about my life as I am aging
And they're still hating
I've run out of ideas for the painting
This love is tainted
We're making love to each other but we're faking
Please don't make me be the one (Be the one), yeah
Who would've gave you more than what you want (What you want)
I know I messed up
I did wrong
I'm not making it sound okay
But do you really want me gone?

I told you things, and I'm hoping that we could stay the same, no holding back
I did wrong and I don't think you deserve it, no no
And you told me things, nobody else knows
I appreciate that more than you know
We need to fight this through, I swear it's worth it, oh yeah

I'm no good at relationships
And it's no way that you ain't shit
Give you time to wait, I ain't scared
Just come back when your mind's there
We're no good at relationships
And it's no way you [?]
Give you time to wait, I ain't scared
Just come back when your mind's there

Hold on to
You hold on to
You hold on to
You hold on to
You hold on to

Give you time to wait I ain't scared
Just come back when your mind's there

And I told you things, and I'm hoping that we could stay the same No holding back
I did wrong and I don't think you deserve it, no no
And you told me things, nobody else knows
I appreciate that more than you know
We need to fight this through, I swear it's worth it, oh yeah
