

Toxic 2016

S3RL

We are Toxic
There is no escape
From our poison
Running through your veins

First you will resist
But then you will see
This is the poison
Of your fantasies

We are Toxic
There is no escape
From our poison
Running through your veins

First you will resist
But then you will see
This is the poison
Of your fantasies

We are Toxic
There is no escape
From our poison
Running through your veins

First you will resist
But then you will see
This is the poison
Of your fantasies

We are Toxic
There is no escape
From our poison
Running through your veins

First you will resist
But then you will see
This is the poison
Of your fantasies

Soon you'll be so high
You cannot come down
Losing your head
Spinning round and around

You'll be addicted
Once you take a hit
Welcome aboard, oh
Welcome to Toxic

We are Toxic
There is no escape
From our poison
Running through your veins

First you will resist
But then you will see

This is the poison
Of your fantasies

Soon you'll be so high
You cannot come down
