

Stomping

SABA

Yeah

Stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping

Stomping, something happened to me

I don't know, guess it was just coming

Runway shorty wanna come and show me something

Runway garments, but my t-shirt plain today, it came from Target

Fuck the function, I'm more like the one she wanna go and have lunch with

Stomping in some shit I can't pronounce for nothing

Stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping

Think I know too much that much of y'all is puppets

My bucket hat low

Nantucket, smokin' dope

Chris Tucker got a bowl, that's a buffer

She got body like Buffy and her mind, Socrates

What's my sign? I'm a Cancer

Her music taste A1, she recognizing the sample

That's that trumpet, couldn't place where it was from, but she was hunting

She would snap her fingers, thinking like, "Um, what was it?"

I'm a smooth talker, he could sell an NFT to Jesus

Need a lot for all my people, gotta split it, can't be greedy

Yeah

Stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping

Stomping, something happened to me

I don't know, guess it was just coming

Runway shorty wanna come and show me something

Runway garments but my t-shirt plain today, it came from Target

Fuck the function, I'm more like the one she wanna go and have lunch with

Stomping in some shit I can't pronounce for nothing

Stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping

Stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping, stomping

Smooth operator type

Gave me the kiss of life

Conflict while we drive

Love is stronger than pride

Artsy farsty mami, mami, mami

Artsy farsty mami, mami, mami
