

I, Emperor

Sabatón

I'll take command, I'll take the army
I'll take the crown, my mandate to rule
I'll take your land, your independence
And I will make it part of my realm

Know that I will enforce the code that bears my name
I will take what I deem is mine and claim the fame
I will assimilate your land, my command
So prepare, get your armies ready
I'll be coming

I will conquer all, I will rule you
I'll bring triumph or fall, I will defend you
I'll make cannons roar, I'll defeat you
I'll win, the war, I will destroy you

I'll be the fox, I'll be the lion
I'll do what it takes to sit on the throne
I play the game, where others will falter
Control the truth, the power to rule

While as I see my rise to rule as destiny
May it be that 5 million dead's my legacy
I will make nations bend and bow by my feet
So prepare, get your armies ready
I'll be coming

I will conquer all, I will rule you
I'll bring triumph or fall, I will defend you
I'll make cannons roar, I'll defeat you
I'll win, the war, I will destroy you

Hear me now soldiers of my old guard, I have come to bid you all farewell
For twenty years you have joined me on the path to glory
Farewell my children, farewell!

While as I see my rise to rule as destiny
May it be that 5 million dead's my legacy
I will make nations bend and bow by my feet
So prepare, get your armies ready
I'll be coming, I'm returning

I will conquer all, I will rule you
I'll bring triumph or fall, I will defend you
I'll make cannons roar, I'll defeat you
I'll win, the war, I will destroy you

I will conquer all, I will rule you
I'll bring triumph or fall, I will defend you
I'll make cannons roar, I'll defeat you
I'll win, the war, I will destroy you
