

Impaler

Sabatón

Long ago, a child was born, the second son of dragonsworn
The world was torn, a time of Plots and schemes, disputed rule, strategic pacts as tensions r ose
The conflict grows, his time will come

Imprisoned with his brother
His hatred has been uncovered
Never surrender

Marching on, weapons drawn, come the dawn
Assail them, impale them, bring them to their knees
Dragon's son, see it done, overrun
Decapitation, annihilation, will bring them down in flames

Secure the throne, to rule alone, the traitors must be overthro wn
He will be known as the Impaler of the enemy force, exact revenge without remorse
There's no recourse, his time has come

Protector of the border
The guardian of the order
Never surrender

Marching on, weapons drawn, come the dawn
Assail them, impale them, bring them to their knees
Dragon's son, see it done, overrun
Decapitation, annihilation, will bring them down in flames

Imprisoned with his brother
His hatred has been uncovered
Never surrender

Marching on, weapons drawn, come the dawn
Assail them, impale them, bring them to their knees
Dragon's son, see it done, overrun
Decapitation, annihilation, will bring them down in flames
