

Lose You

Sabina Ddumba

The world on my shoulders
I don't want this weight no more
I'm getting stronger
Guess it really hurts to grow
All that I left behind
I forget that it takes some time
Let the dust settle
So I waited, I hold on

God knows you almost got to me
I was in therapy but I will finally
Oh, I'm letting myself loose
No, it's not up to you
Cuz in the end I choose

I choose to forgive you
I needed to forgive myself
It can't let it out of resistance
But I did away from my distance
I choose to forgive you

Emancipated
You about to see me in a different light
It's not complicated
I might be young but it's still my life

God knows you almost got to me
I was in therapy but I will finally
Oh, I'm letting myself loose
No, it's not up to you
Cuz in the end I choose

I choose to forgive you
I needed to forgive myself
It can't let it out of resistance
But I did away from my distance
I choose to forgive you

God knows you almost got to me
I was in therapy but I will finally
Oh, I'm letting myself loose
No, it's not up to you
Cuz in the end I choose
God knows you almost got to me
I was in therapy but I will finally
Oh, I'm letting myself loose
No, it's not up to you
Cuz in the end I choose

I choose to forgive you
I needed to forgive myself
It can't let it out of resistance
But I did away from my distance, yeah
I choose to forgive you

I choose to, to lose you
