

Manboy

Sabina Ddumba

You've got the looks, you got the beauty inside
You got the looks
There's no one can lie
The way you move you do it with ease
And I must admit you making me feel
Give me love
And don't go oh
Give me love (Oh oh)

Could you be my "Manboy" could you be my man
All I really want is
You to show me how to love
The moment that your eyes are looking back at me
I'm losing self control
Could you be my "Manboy"
Could you be my man
Could you be my man

I bet you know how often I found you
You're always around though you're not here
I feel imprisoned you're always around

Give me love (oh oh)
And don't go (oh oh)
Give me love
Would you be my "Manboy"
Could you be my man
All I really want is you to show me how to love
The moment that your eyes are looking back at me
I'm losing self control
Could you be my "Manboy"
Could you be my man
Be my man

Could you be my man
(Oh oh)
The moment that your eyes are looking back at me
I lose self control
Could you be my "Manboy" (could you be my "Manboy")

Could you be my man (could you be my man) (oh baby) could you be my man (could you be my man)
