

Pick Sides

Sabina Ddumba

Pick sides, no
Pick sides, no

Let it go, 'cause I won't have this conversation
For the hundredth time, don't ask why
You're not gon' get me to choose, just know, baby
You're gonna lose, so don't make me, pick sides, no

I know we got somethin'
You gon' go mess it up, being all up in your feelings
Why is we arguin'?
About somethin' you've known about me ever since the beginnin'
I never lied, I never tried to be nobody
Else but myself, you tryna make me into somebody
I don't believe in
You need to take me as I am, try to understand my reasons

I wanna be who I was when we met, yeah
It's funny just how fast you can forget, yeah
That I have wanted this all of my life, how I sacrificed
Just accept it

Let it go, 'cause I won't have this conversation
For the hundredth time, don't ask why
You're not gon' get me to choose, just know, baby
You're gonna lose, so don't make me, pick sides, no

Turnin' the table
If I was you I wouldn't put you in that situation
I would be patient
Wait for me, wait, wait for me, baby
I ain't never switch up, I gave you love
I showed you myself, that should be enough
We should be makin', love, love, love, baby

I wanna be who I was when we met, yeah
It's funny just how fast you can forget, yeah
That I have wanted this all of my life, how I sacrificed
Just accept it

Let it go, 'cause I won't have this conversation
For the hundredth time, don't ask why
You're not gon' get me to choose, just know, baby
You're gonna lose, so don't make me, pick sides, no

You're just gotta believe
Even when I'm gone
You know I'm comin' back to you
I won't be long, no
No matter where, my heart is here
No matter who, I'm with you
You can tell by my moves
All the things that I do
I do it all for you
I shouldn't have to prove
So let it go

'Cause I won't have this conversation
For the hundredth time, don't ask why
You're not gon' get me to choose, just know, baby
You're gonna lose, so don't make me, pick sides, no
Pick sides, no
