Sabina Ddumba

Sometimes, yeah
Sometimes
Sometimes, yeah

I don't wanna call back sometimes
Some things you can take back, sometimes
I don't wanna break up, I just wanna break from
Me and you to make things alright
I don't even like you sometimes
I don't wanna argue sometimes
I don't wanna break up, I just wanna break from
Me and you to make things alright

'Cause didn't you stay in love?
And I don't wanna fuck this up
So I need time (I need time, I need time, I need time)
It be like that sometimes

It be like that when you got real low
Some days we down, most days we be up
I always thought that roller coaster was fun
While crazy crazy, boy, you still my number one

[?] know how it goes
[?] relationship goes
You ever [?] nobody knows
'Cause we [?]

And you love me even though I get emotional
You drive me crazy but
Nobody's better for me (nobody better for me)
Baby you're like medicine (baby you're my medicine)

I don't wanna call back sometimes
Some things you can take back, sometimes
I don't wanna break up, I just wanna break from
Me and you to make things alright
I don't even like you sometimes
I don't wanna argue sometimes
I don't wanna break up, I just wanna break from
Me and you to make things alright

'Cause didn't you stay in love?
And I don't wanna fuck this up
So I need time
It be like that sometimes, ooh

Sometimes I just, I just need to cruise
Roll my spliff up, smoke my [?], ooh
Take my mind off [?] you
Till you do that little freaky thing you do

And me and you we gang gang
[?] my man

'Cause every day is sunny

You love me even though I get emotional
You drive me crazy but
Nobody's better for me (nobody better for me)
Baby you're like medicine (baby you're my medicine)

I don't wanna call back sometimes
Some things you can take back, sometimes
I don't wanna break up, I just wanna break from
Me and you to make things alright
I don't even like you sometimes
I don't wanna argue sometimes
I don't wanna break up, I just wanna break from
Me and you to make things alright

Sometimes yeah, yeah
Sometimes, sometimes, you
