

Goodbye

Sabrina Carpenter

Broke my heart on Saturday
Guess overnight, your feelings changed
And I have cried so much I almost fainted (Aha, aha)
To show you just how much it hurts
I wish I had a gun or words
If something got lost in communication (Aha, aha)

Well, sayonara, adios
You're not bilingual, but you should know

Goodbye means that you're losing me for life
Can't call it love then call it quits, can't shoot me down then shoot
the shit
Did you forget that it was you who said goodbye?
So you don't get to be the one who cries
Can't have your cake and eat it too, by walking out that means you choose

The feeling's so specific
Wanna punch you every other minute, oh
You used to love my ass, now, baby, you won't see it anymore (Aha, ah a)
Just give it three weeks, buddy
Gonna wake up from your coma, honey, oh
And that's when you'll be holding hokey flowers standing at my door (Aha)

But I'll say, "Arrivederci, au revoir"
Forgive my French, but fuck you, ta-ta

Goodbye means that you're losing me for life
Can't call it love then call it quits, can't shoot me down then shoot
the shit
Did you forget that it was you who said goodbye?
So you don't get to be the one who cries
Can't have your cake and eat it too, by walking out, that means you choose

Sayonara, adios
On the flip side, cheerio
Por siempre te amo, wait, no
Shit, when did you get here? Go put on some clothes

Goodbye means that you're losing me for life
Can't call it love then call it quits, can't shoot me down then shoot
the shit
Did you forget that it was you who said goodbye?
So you don't get to be the one who cries
Can't have your cake and eat it too, by walking out that means you choose

Goodbye

Get home safe
