

Discouraged

Sabrina Claudio

I'm thinking that you might be worth losing my mind over
Might be worth hurting for, and never getting closure
Oh, I hope I never have to heal from you
But that won't discourage me, even if I do

Give me it all
Give me it all, want your strength and your weakness too
Ready for war
Ready for war, I just want to experience you
Give me it all
Give me it all, want your strength and your weakness too
Ready for war
Ready for war, I just want to experience you

And each time I kiss you, it's as if it were the last time
Just so I'm prepared for the worst with a million goodbyes
Hope you never want a love outside of me
Please don't get discouraged if this takes some fighting for

Give me it all
Give me it all, want your strength and your weakness too
Ready for war
Ready for war, I just want to experience you
Give me it all
Give me it all, want your strength and your weakness too
Ready for war, yeah
Ready for war, I just want to experience you

I hope I never have to heal from you
But it's worth the chance to love you if I do
