

Dreama

Sad Harmony

I feel breathing colour, making paintbrush scary
I should believe the way, that i can survive from dust
Till down
Whole my body taken, lured into your toils
Showing open gate
But i'll be never going there.

I'll leave my home tonight
With lightings screaming in my heart
I can't spend this life with you!
Midnight's gone away!

Lizard went to l'amour in somersaults of fury
Solemn moment in your life
Could you give me something more
Careless vortex spins my mind but something's
Changing under.
Something what makes me feel better unborn.

All lust will die and stale our love is going to stain
I pray for change this thorny way
But i'm turning in my grave and worms keep sing their lullaby
Soul flows and my face is pale
