

Just Because

Sadie Jean

I've been
Stuck in my head
Thinking
Of what we meant
And if
You could see me like this
I'd want you to know that

Just because I miss you
Doesn't mean I want you back
And just because I almost called
Don't mean I wish I had
And just because I felt like dying
When you left out of the blue
It doesn't mean I wanna be with anyone like you

I'm sure
Fate simply played its course
I couldn't have stayed yours
I deserve much more
But I can't help from hurting
I guess I'm still learning

Just because I miss you
Doesn't mean I want you back
And just because I almost called
Don't mean I wish I had
And just because I felt like dying
It doesn't mean I wanna be with anyone like you

Just because you said it doesn't mean that it was real
And just because you're sorry now
It doesn't mean I've healed
From letting you take almost all of me
Until you had enough
Looking back it only means you hurt me, you hurt me just because
Hurt
(Should've never let, should've never let)
Me just because
Hurt
(Are you happy yet, are you happy yet)
Me just for fun
Hurt
(And I won't forget)
For what?

Cuz looking back it only means you hurt me, you hurt me just because
