

Locksmith

Sadie Jean

This is the last song I'll write about you
I need to move on, I think you do too
You were all that I wanted
You know that you still are
Cuz I've been alright yeah but you showed me better
I know that we're changing
But nothing feels different
I'm breaking the silence to say

If in 10 years time
I'm still on your mind
Would you call and
Say you want this
No matter where we are
You still have my heart
Cuz I locked it
And I promise
You're the locksmith

We said forever and said it too soon
But at least now I know, nobody feels like you do
You were all that I wanted
You know that you still are
I'm breaking the silence to say

If in 10 years time
I'm still on your mind
Would you call and
Say you want this
No matter where we are
You still have my heart
Cuz I locked it
And I promise
You're the locksmith

You're the one that I can see me growing old with Build a house I see it now you plant me roses
And everything we dreamed about came into focus
Here's to hopin'

If in 10 years time
I'm still on your mind
Could you call and
Say you want this
No matter where we are
You still have my heart
Cuz I locked it
And I promise
You're the locksmith
